Transportation: If applicable, I authorize my child to travel to/from camp activities in the Chaparral Ice van, bus or other transportation arranged by Chaparral Ice.

Discipline: Please encourage your child to follow the instructions of camp counselors and Chaparral Ice staff. Behavior problems may result in a meeting with the Camp Director and a consultation with the parents. Chaparral Ice, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to expel any child from camp if negative behavior endangers the health, safety, or well-being of another person, including themselves. We cannot be responsible for children who will not cooperate or follow instructions. There will be no refunds for children who are expelled for disciplinary reasons.

Accidents: In case of sickness or accident, Chaparral Ice has my approval to secure, at my expense, such medical attention as deemed necessary, if unable to contact me.

Medication/Illness: Any medication to be administered to campers must: (1) be given directly to a camp counselor or the Camp Director at sign-in; (2) be in the original container with its original label; (3) and parents must fill out the medical authorization log. All medication will be kept in the camp office.

*Parents please note: Although we will make every attempt to give the medicine on time, it is ultimately the camper's responsibility to notify the camp staff when the medication is to be taken. If the medicine is to go home with the camper daily, it is the responsibility of the parent to sign it out from the camp office.

Special Needs: The Camp Director should be notified if your child has special emotional or physical needs. We will make every effort to serve campers who have special needs, however, we will not accept campers who have needs beyond our training or capabilities.

Liability: At all times the camper shall be liable for personal injury and/or property damage or loss incurred while on the premises or while in the care of Chaparral Ice employees and the camper agrees to defend and hold Chaparral Ice Center, its officers, agents and employees harmless against any and all liability for claims, demands and causes of camper's use, maintenance and operation of the facilities or otherwise upon the premises or from the camper's negligence during the term of this agreement.
